A History Minute by Libby Putnam

The dictionary defines the noun "bunch" as a group of individuals gathered together, and Mary's Breakfast Bunch is just that! Formed well over 20 years ago, the Breakfast Bunch, as it was first known, began as an idea of several members of our church to be able to share breakfast and other special outings together. Mary Black was one of those members who really helped get the group together, and it is to honor her memory that the group is now known as Mary's Breakfast Bunch. Often riding on the church bus, the group sometimes enjoyed breakfast at Cracker Barrel, or visited the mountains to pick apples. In more recent years, however, it became more convenient to stay in town for breakfast. Now the group meets the 4th Tuesday of each month at Linwood Restaurant where Keith Falls is likely to add a plate of cantaloupe, sliced tomatoes, or perhaps a jar of fresh peach preserves.

Members of Mary's Breakfast Bunch along with other church members interested in visiting area sites, have formed another group known as the Central Trekkers. Some of their recent outings include taking the train into Charlotte and visiting the Museum of the New South, visiting the Daniel Stowe Botanical Garden, and on October 2 they will take a boat trip on Lake Lure. Currently the Central Trekkers plan trips bi-monthly on the 1st Wednesday of the month.

Sharing meals with others, visiting interesting places, conversation, and simply belonging to a group is not only a healthy activity, but a wonderful way to get to know those friends with whom we enjoy worship. Both Mary's Breakfast Bunch and the Central Trekkers welcome those interested and promise to be a blessing to all who participate.
